IRONBRIDGE FUNDS, INC. – ANNUAL DISTRIBUTIONS FOR 2018 – Actual

Throughout the year, IronBridge Funds, Inc. (IronBridge Funds) realize gains and losses from selling securities held in their portfolios. Tax law requires mutual funds to distribute the net gains from these sales to shareholders by year-end. To help with your 2018 tax planning, listed below are the IronBridge Funds' capital gain distributions based on fund transactions through October 31, 2018. The amount of the capital gains distributions you receive will be reported on your year-end account statement (mailed in January) and on your Form 1099-DIV.

- Short-term capital gains are taxable as ordinary income. The estimates in this chart do not reflect calculations for Qualified Dividends. However, those calculations, if applicable, will appear on your Form 1099-DIV.
- The IronBridge Funds listed above are expected to pay capital gain distributions on December 13, 2018, to all shareholders of record as of December 12, 2018. The price for each fund distributing capital gains will be adjusted downward on the business day following the record date to reflect the amount of the distribution.

Mutual fund investing involves risk; principal loss is possible.

Each Fund's investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses must be considered carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other important information about the IronBridge Funds and it may be obtained by calling (877) 861-7714 or by downloading from www.ironbridgefunds.net. Read the prospectus carefully before investing. For specific tax-related questions, please consult your tax advisor for advice.

The Fund may invest in foreign securities, which are subject to the risks of currency fluctuations, political and economic instability and differences in accounting methods. Those risks are greater for emerging market countries. The fund invests in smaller companies, which involve additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. Changes affecting a particular sector or region of the world economy in which the fund has invested may have significant effects on the portfolio.

The IronBridge Funds, Inc. are distributed by Quasar Distributors, LLC.
